

Dr. Sam Higginbotham Speaking Here Sunday

Dr. Sam Higginbotham, missionary to India, will speak at both services Sunday at the St. John A. M. E. Church for negroes. He is an alumnus of Amherst, Princeton and Ohio State Universities and is appearing here under auspices of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian Church.

Special reservations have been made for white friends of the congregation. Music will be by the State Teachers College double quartet and the Alabama Reform School sextet. Bishop D. H. Sims will also speak briefly, giving a report on the recent annual conference.
